

Me too and Me neither.

1. Write the definition of when do we have to use me too and me neither.

Me too

Me neither

2. Write me too or me neither based on the following sentences.

1. I like the movie.
2. She doesn't like pizza.
3. I am not tired.
4. Nikolas loves chocolate.
5. Sally enjoys the video.
6. I'm not very good at physics.
7. I can't speak Japanese.
8. I like to go to the club on Saturdays.

1)
2)
3)
4)
5)
6)
7)
8)

3. Fill the blanks with “me too” or “me neither”.

1. A: I like reading books.

B: _____

2. A: I don't know him.

B: _____

3. A: I want to be an actor in the future.

B: _____

4. A: We can't swim in the sea very well.

B: _____

5. A: We will stay at home tomorrow.

B: _____

6. A: Nikolas and I didn't go to the theater yesterday.

B: _____

7. A: I really enjoy to learn English.

B: _____