

Match the titles to their definitions:

...are the obligations that come with our rights, and are what we must do to keep our rights and maintain a peaceful society.

... are dictated by use or custom and are set and generally accepted by people living in a community, like wearing a face mask.

The adults in charge of your protection have the obligation of providing you with good nutrition and necessary care so that you grow up healthy and do not get sick.

Inalienable, obligatory and indivisible.

Rights

Duties

Right to health

Right to an education

Human rights characteristics

Social norms

Legal norms

...give us the opportunity to do certain things freely or to act in a certain way without anyone preventing us from doing so, as long as our actions do not negatively affect others.

are written and set by the State, such as the laws we live by. People are obligated to follow laws and the State is in charge of making sure this happens, like obeying traffic lights.

You have the right to get a good education, so that in the future you can choose what you would like to do and to be in an informed position to exercise your rights.

Arrange the timeline:

1789

1948

Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen

Universal Declaration of Human Rights

