

The Life Cycle of a Plant.

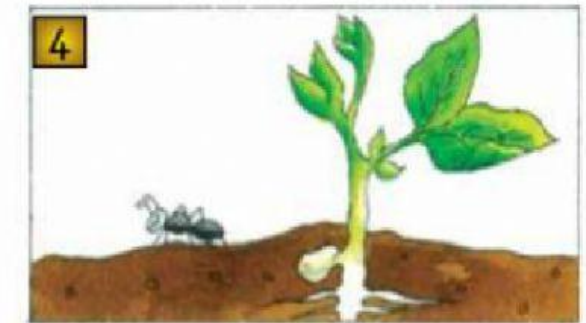

The seed is in the ground.

The seed grows a white root.
The root grows down into the ground for food and water.

The seed grows a shoot. The shoot gets bigger. It grows up to the sunlight.

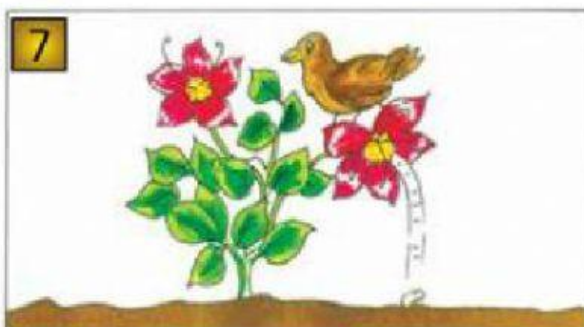

Leaves grow from the shoot.

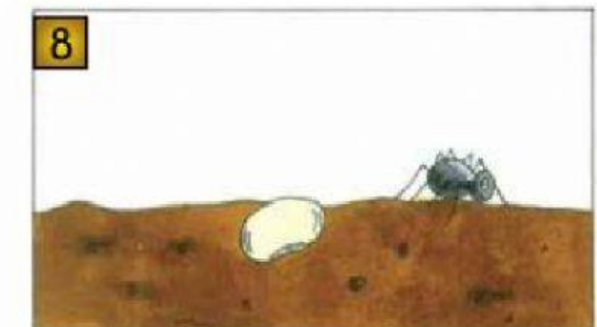

The seed grows into plant.

The plant grows flowers.

The flowers grow seeds.

The seed is in the ground.