TEENS 1: FINAL PRACTICE

1. READ THE TEXT: ARE THESE SENTENCES TRUE OR FALSE?

In front of the enormous Shibuya train station in Tokyo, there is a life-size bronze statue of a dog. It is very small, compared to the huge neon signs flashing, it isn't difficult to find. It has been used as a meeting point since 1934 and today you will find hundreds of people waiting there for their friends.

Hachiko, an Akita dog, was born in 1923 and brought to Tokyo in 1924. His owner, Professor Eisaburo Ueno and he were inseparable friends right from the start. Each day Hachiko would accompany his owner to Shibuya train station when he left for work. When he came back, the professor would always find the dog patiently waiting for him. Sadly, the professor died suddenly at work in 1925 before he could return home.

Hachiko was still a young dog but the bond between him and his owner was very strong and he continued to wait at the station every day. Sometimes, he would stay there for days at a time. He became a familiar sight to citizens over time. In 1934, a statue of him was put outside the station. In 1935, Hachiko died at the place he last saw his friend alive.
