

Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves

Pages: 19, 20 and 21

1. Number the paragraphs in the correct order.

☐ "Tomorrow you can go and get the treasure and we'll give some to everyone in the village."	☐ "You men are very silly," said Nasreen. "Yes, very silly," said Zhila. "The oil merchant from India wasn't an old merchant from India." "No," said Nasreen. "He was the leader of the forty thieves."
☐ The rock opened and they put all the wooden boxes and sacks of treasure on the donkeys. Then they went back to the village and gave the treasure to the poor villagers. "Thank you, Nasreen and Zhila," said the villagers. "You're very clever women!"	☐ In the morning Cassim and Ali Baba woke up early and went into the garden. "This is very strange," said Ali. "The oil merchant isn't here, and his horses aren't here! Where are they?!"
☐ "Where are the forty thieves now?" Said Cassim. "They ran into the desert, and let's hope they'll never come back," said Zhila.	☐ The next day Cassim with Ali Baba went back to the rock with ten grey donkeys. "Open Wheat," said Cassim. "No, silly! Don't you remember? It's not Wheat, it's Sesame!" Said Ali Baba. "Of course, the word is Sesame! Open Sesame," said Cassim.

2. Find the past form of the verbs in the text and complete the crossword.

Across

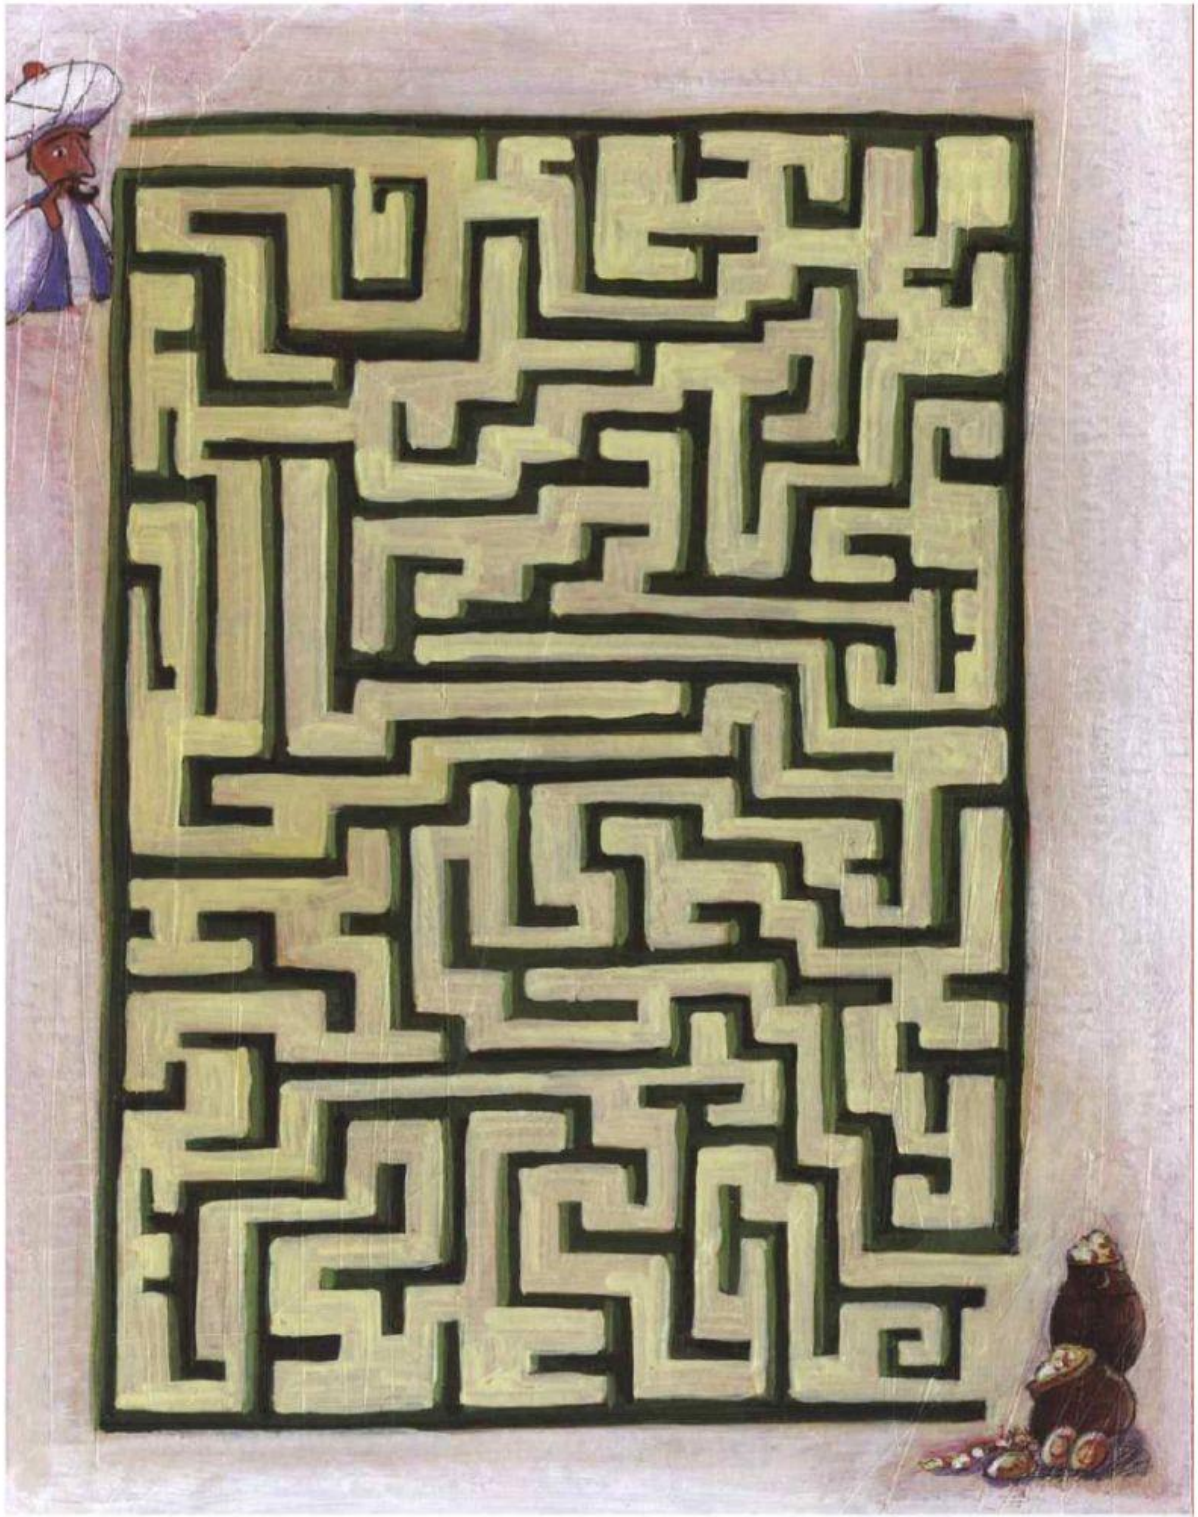

- Wake up
- Isn't
- Say

Down

- Open
- Is
- Go
- Put

3. Help Ali Baba find the treasure.

4. Complete the crossword.

Across

- 1 The went to Ali Baba's house when it was dark.
- 5 There were in a sack.
- 8 The ran into the desert.
- 10 'Let's and look at the pots on his horses.'
- 11 The horses ran out of the
- 12 The opposite of in.

Down

- 2 is not the right word.
- 3 The tall man out of the garden.
- 4 The treasure was in a
- 6 The horses ran into the
- 7 Nasreen opened the
- 8 The forty thieves stopped near a rock.
- 9 Go away!

