Lesson 2: Cities, Towns, and Farms

Directions: Match each term in the box to its description in the chart. Write the term in the second column in the chart.

Benjamin Franklin	Middle Colony towns	Puritans
Elizabeth Lucas Pinckney	general store	overseer
Southern plantation	town common	farming families
Philadelphia	meeting house

Largest city in the 13 colonies
Established first public library, hospital, and fire department in the 13 colonies
First planter to raise a successful crop of indigo
Began building towns in Massachusetts in 1630
Open space where cattle and sheep could graze
Plantation manager
Most important building in colonial town
Served as marketplaces where farmers could sell their crops and buy tools and clothes
Large farm where cash crops such as tobacco and rice were grown
Place to buy imported goods such as tea and sugar
Families who had to make or grow most of what they needed	