

Vocabulary: Going to

A. Read the story and click on all the Going to actions: (there are 12)

  Dog sled  luggage	Bruno and André are from Brazil. They are explorers, and next week they're going to start an exciting trip. They're going to travel around the world in eighty days. Jules Verne wrote about a trip around the world in his famous book "Around the World in 80 days". Bruno and André are going to make that trip. They're not going to travel by plane. They're going to use transportation from the time of Jules Verne. They're going to travel by boat and train. In India, they're going to ride elephants. In the snowy parts of North America, they're going to travel by sled. They're not going to take a lot of bags because they're going to carry their luggage all the time. They're going to visit lots of countries. It's going to be an amazing trip!
--	--

2. Are the sentences True or False? Select the correct option:

Bruno and André are going to travel by plane .	TRUE	FALSE
They're going to ride elephants in North America .	TRUE	FALSE
They're going to carry their bags all the time .	TRUE	FALSE
They're going to travel around the world in eight days.	TRUE	FALSE
They're going to use transportation from the 20th Century	TRUE	FALSE
They're going to visit lots of different countries .	TRUE	FALSE

3. Complete the story. Use the verbs in bracket with am going to... / are going to...:

For winter break, I am going to visit (visit) my cousin Annie in Canada. I _____ (pack) warm clothes because it's very cold and snowy in Canada in winter. Before I go, I _____ (buy) new boots for the snow. I _____ (look at) warm hats and gloves, too.

We _____ (go skiing) in the mountains. And then we _____ (drink) hot chocolate.