Vocabulary Practice

After STUDENT'S BOOK page 20

A Complete the sentences with the words below.

continents	breathe	produced	farming	surface	wood
cause	destruction	oxygen	global warming	percent	covered

1. Many parts of the world are affected by global warming .
2. Africa and Asia are both ..... .
3. They want to save this old building. It's not easy because it's made of ..... .
4. Be careful! This ..... is so slippery. It's ..... with ice.
5. My uncle only buys cars that are ..... in Japan.
6. The firefighters believe that a campfire was the ..... of the forest fire.
7. Ninety ..... of the students in my class volunteer at the Children's Center.
8. We can grow more food with less water by using technology in ..... .
9. It was hard to ..... on the mountain because there wasn't enough ..... .

Complete the report with the words below.

affect	expect	destroy	environment	live hand to mouth
impression	survive	way of life	took part	ups and downs

RORY'S ADVENTURE

Can you imagine how living with a tribe in the Borneo Rainforest might [1] affect your weight? Rory Munro, a 17-year-old from Scotland, lost 14 kilos when he [2] ..... in a special documentary. For four weeks, Rory and nine other teenagers lived with the Iban tribe and learned their [3] ..... .

The teens didn't get much preparation and they weren't sure what to [4] ..... . At first, living in a jungle [5] ..... wasn't easy. The teens had to get up very early every day to help. They had to sleep on the floor, wash in the river and even hunt for food in order to [6] ..... . They learned what it was like to [7] ..... . Life in the rainforest was difficult and most of the teens had a lot of [8] ..... . But Rory made such a good [9] ..... that the chief of the tribe invited him to return.

When the month was over, Rory was very sad to leave. He said he really admired the tribe because "they make use of* everything but [10] ..... nothing."

