- We use the present continuous for things that are happening now / at the moment.
- At the moment can mean around now.
I'm reading a good book at the moment.
(= not exactly now)
- We also use the present continuous with longer periods of time, e.g. today, this week, this month. The present continuous emphasizes that the action is temporary, not a habit.
I'm working at home this week because my daughter isn't very well.
