Hey Bobby!! What's up? Long time no see. Last weekend I played tennis, surfed the internet and watched some movies on TV. For next weekend, I'm organizing a party on Saturday night. The guys and I will be meeting on Tuesday and Thursday to sort out the tasks and try to have everything ready.

So, what do you say? If you are in, this is what you'll have to bring: some oranges and vodka, some ice, beverages, cokes, sodas, buckets for the ice, plastic glasses and plates, forks , and spoons for the pizzas, and also for the cakes and pies, neon lights if you have, and we'll need some extra chairs.

The DJ will be Max, but tell us if you have any suggestions on the music.

Ok, that's all for now. Please, contact me if you have any doubts on these topics. I can't wait to see you, mate!
