

Digestion

Read and number the steps:

In the stomach, the chewed food turns into a thick liquid	In your mouth, your teeth cup up and chew the food. Your tongue mixes the food with saliva.	The rest continues into the large intestine. Solid waste forms here.	The chewed food travels down your oesophagus.	Solid waste leaves the body through the anus.	Nutrients from the thick liquid are absorbed into the small intestine.
---	---	--	---	---	--

1	2	3
4	5	6