

Fund. Plus 1 – unit 3

Watch the video example about how to describe a place and people's habits.

Now, think about a city you like. Look for information about that city. Finally, write a paragraph describing it. In the paragraph try to answer the following questions: where is the city located? Why do you want to visit it? What is there to see? What do you like about it?

A large green rectangular area for writing a paragraph. The area is empty, with a thin blue border. The bottom right corner of the green area is folded over, showing a greyish-green underside.
