The children went to the <sup>1</sup>library / museum to <sup>2</sup>look up / zoom in Coach Jones' address. The <sup>3</sup>secretary / librarian gave them a password to <sup>4</sup>click on / log on to the computer. The librarian's papers flew everywhere, but <sup>5</sup>Gaia / Annabel caught them. They found some news stories. The news stories said Coach Jones was a <sup>6</sup>ruby / robber! They realised it was one of their mysteries. Mrs Rose stole the ruby. The police knew that Coach Jones was innocent, but Coach Jones didn't know that. The children <sup>7</sup>printed out / scrolled down the old news stories to show to Coach Jones. They had to find him, to tell him the police didn't think he was a robber. They found his address and went to look for him.
