

Vocabulary - Making decisions

Match. Then fill in the blanks using one word only.

make a decision

bear/keep sth in mind have second thoughts about sth put a lot of thought into a decision take a decision lightly be in two minds about sth be torn between sth and sth else make a hasty decision make a snap decision

toy/flirt with the idea of doing sth decide too quickly

think long and hard/think twice before doing sth decide without considering sth carefully/seriously take sth into account/consideration doubt a decision you've already made decide quickly, without much preparation/warning consider doing sth but not seriously reach/come to a decision be uncertain/have difficulty making a decision be unable to decide between two options

1. I didn't take this decision . It's a serious matter. I put a lot of  into it.
2. She made a  decision. Now she's having  thoughts about moving to Spain leaving everything behind.
3. I'm in two  about accepting the job. The salary is very tempting but it's a position of great responsibility.
4. I'm  between marrying John now and focusing on my studies for a couple more years.
5. My boss was getting anxious and demanded a solution to the problem so I had to think on my feet and make a  decision.
6. My friends and I are  with the idea of going backpacking to Peru, but nothing has been decided yet.
7. The committee hasn't  to a decision on the funding yet, so the organisation of the event had to be postponed.
8. Driving makes it easier to get to places, but you should  in mind that maintaining a car isn't cheap. I would  long and hard before buying one if I were you.