

Happy Thanksgiving

THANKSGIVING

READ THE SHORT BOOK ON YOUTUBE AND FILL IN THE MISSING WORDS.

Thanksgiving is a day to show _____ what we _____. These _____ came from _____ that happened _____.

People have held _____ for _____ of years. Farmers _____ their _____. They had a big _____. It showed their _____ for the _____.

Today's _____ began with a group of people from _____. They wanted to start a new _____ apart from the _____ of _____.

In _____ the _____ group set sail on the _____.

The 102 people on board were _____, _____, _____.

and

The _____ arrived at today's _____ of Massachusetts. The first winter was _____ and _____. There was little _____. Nearly _____ of the _____ died.

In spring _____ people helped the English _____. The Wampanoag taught them to plant _____, _____, and _____.

The Wampanoag also helped the settlers _____.

In 1621 the _____ wanted to show _____ for the fall _____. Ninety _____ people joined them. They ate, _____, and _____ for three days.

In 1863 President Abraham _____ made Thanksgiving an _____ U.S. holiday. Now, it is always held on the fourth _____ in November.

Thanksgiving still means _____, food and _____. People watch _____ on TV. Others serve food to the _____. Most of all the _____ reminds us to be _____.

