

Extreme Adjectives

Boiling, Disgusting, Exhausted, Freezing, Furious, Huge, Starving, Tiny

I am _____, please could you turn on the heating?

Did you see that _____ whale at the Natural History Museum?

Alice was _____ after she finished the marathon

My aunt was screaming because she saw a mouse, but it was _____ !

I think bananas are _____ .

Could you check and see if the water is _____ yet please?

I am absolutely _____ with my sister for stealing my best jeans.

Is dinner ready yet? I'm _____ .

Time Management

Get organised, set goals, make lists, plan ahead, waste time, prioritise, put off, develop a routine, set a reminder, meet a deadline, find a balance, take a break

It's important to _____ between work and home life.

Don't do today what you can _____ until tomorrow!

Once you have _____ you need to _____ and _____ in order to achieve what you are aiming for.

It's easier to _____ if you _____ and try to do the same things every day.

If you have trouble getting to class on time you should _____ on your phone.

Some people like to _____ in order to see what they need to do.

I can't stop now, I don't want to _____ I have to _____ by this afternoon and I can't _____ .