

5.8f Commas AssessmentDirections: Read each question. Choose the best answer.

1. Which sentence uses commas in a series correctly?

A. Before my parents come home, I need to brush my teeth, wash my face, and go to bed.
 B. Before my parents come home, I need to brush my teeth wash my face, and go to bed.
 C. Before my parents come home I need to brush my teeth, wash my face and go, to bed.
 D. Before my parents come home I need to brush, my teeth, wash, my face, and go, to bed.

2. Which sentence uses commas in a series correctly?

A. What, do you think of the new principal?
 B. Halloween is on Saturday, October 31 2020.
 C. In the nighttime, people have a hard time driving.
 D. Have a happy, birthday Joseph!

Directions: Choose the two correct answers.

3. Circle two sentences that are using commas correctly?

I sent postcards to my husband son and nephew.	John went to the store, and bought celery, carrots lettuce and tomatoes for a salad.
I watched such a fascinating, enjoyable movie last night.	This summer we read books, played games, went roller skating, and ate pizza.

4. Which comma correction should be made to this sentence?

For the man who ran a marathon the race seemed to go on forever.

A. For the man who ran a marathon the race seemed, to go on forever.
 B. For the man, who ran a marathon the race seemed to go on forever.
 C. For the man, who ran a marathon, the race seemed to go on forever.
 D. For the man who ran a marathon, the race seemed to go on forever.

5. Which of the following is the best way to use commas?

A. The cat hisses purrs, and meows.
 B. The laundry had a fresh springlike, smell.
 C. Ugh, your backpack is heavy.
 D. What time, do you want to go to the game Felix?