

1) What was the best holiday in your life? Write 15 sentences about the holidays you loved. (Use affirmative and negative sentences) You can use these questions as a guide:

- Where did you go? Who did you go with? How did you travel?
- Which activities did you do? What was the best part?
- Where did you stay?
- How was the weather?

A large, empty rectangular box with a hand-drawn, wavy border, intended for the student to write their response to the question.

2) Describe your town in the past and present. Write 15 sentences.
Remember to use: There is/are/was/were (negative too!), places in town, and the adjectives for describing places (modern, old, boring, interesting, etc).

3. Look at the picture and make 9 comparatives and superlative sentences

Family

