Seed and Non-Seed Plants

1. What is a seed plant?
   a) a plant that does not grow from seeds
   b) a plant that grows from spores
   c) a plant that lives in the water
   d) a plant that grows from seeds

2. A seed is a part of a plant that becomes a new _____.
   a) seed
   b) root
   c) plant
   d) spore

3. When a tiny plant grows from a seed this is called_____.
   a) seedling
   b) sprouting
   c) germination
   d) graduation

4. Which two groups are seed bearing plants?
   a) flowering and mosses
   b) cone bearing and flowering
   c) cone bearing and non-seed plants
   d) flowering and non-seed plants

5. A plant without seeds is called a _____.
   a) algae
   b) seaweed
   c) non-seed plant
   d) seed plant

6. Which of the following is not a type of non-seed plant?
   a) mosses
   b) hibiscus
   c) ferns
   d) algae

7. Place the plant in it's correct column.

Seed Plant	Non-Seed Plant

