History's Most Notorious Killers

Answers

across

1.an official document that gives police officers the authority to search a building for stolen property, illegal goods, or information that might help to solve a crime

4.a dead body, usually of a person

6.a person who is kept in a prison or a hospital for people who are mentally ill

9.a person who has captured a person or animal and refuses to release them

10.an unpleasant emotion or thought that you have when you are frightened or worried by something dangerous, painful, or bad that is happening or might happen

12.someone whose job is to discover information about crimes and find out who is responsible for them

15.a small room with not much furniture, especially in a prison

down

1.to find an answer to a problem

2.Adj. very bad and shocking

3.an injection of a drug that kills someone, especially as a punishment for committing a crime

4.a sign or some information that helps you to find the answer to a problem, question, or mystery

5.a special chair used to kill a criminal with a current of electricity, that can be used in some US states

7.the legal punishment of killing someone

8.to show a particular result after a period of time

11.to get rid of someone or something or deal with something so that the matter is finished

13.the hearing of statements and showing of objects, etc. in a law court to judge if a person is guilty of a crime or to decide a case or a legal matter

14.to stop living or existing, either suddenly or slowly