Match the phrases to complete the sentences.

The crow was thirsty	after searching for a while.
He found a bottle of water	and the crow couldn't reach it.
He was very excited	to put pebbles into the bottle.
The water was so little	so he looked for some water.
He got an idea	and the crow could quench his thirst.
Finally, the water rose	as finally he found something to drink.