

13. What were the Southern Colonies?

_____ _____ _____ _____

The Southern colonists were farmers and plantation owners.

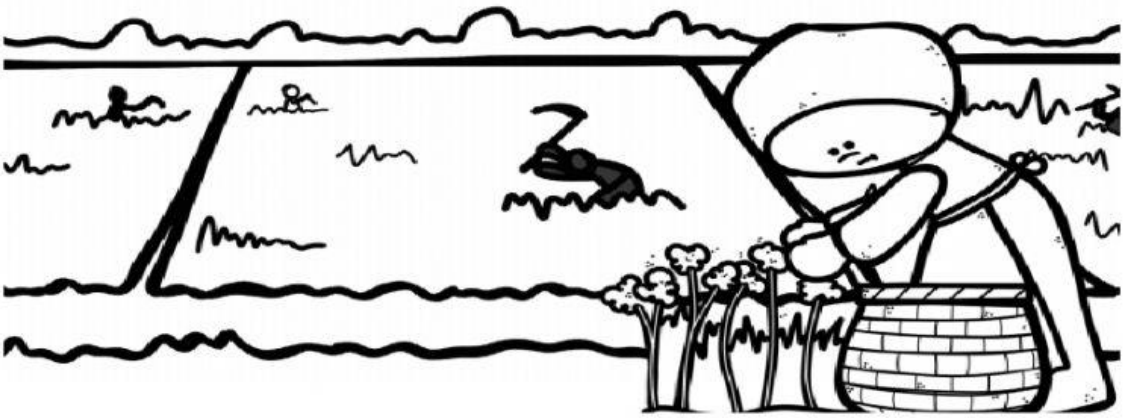

Plantations were where most of the crops were grown.

14. Where was most of their crops grown _____?

Some of the plantation owners had slaves to work the fields.

The Slaves were treated poorly

15. Who worked the fields of the plantation owners_____?

The goods made in these colonies were timber, fish, dye, fur, and cloth.

16. What were some of the goods made in the Southern colonies _____, _____, _____, _____?

Farming was made easy in the Southern Colonies, they grew:

cotton, rice, and indigo. Tobacco.

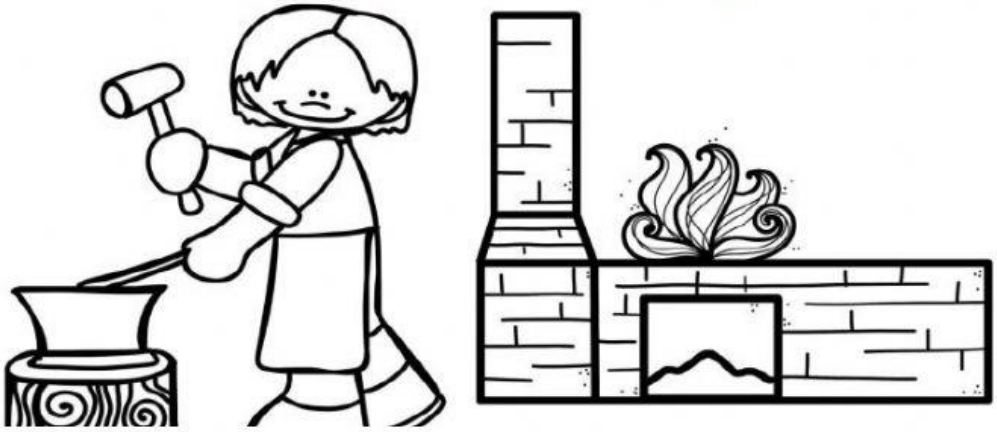

There were many different jobs in the colonial times.

A blacksmith was an iron worker that created metal objects.

17. What did the blacksmith create

_____ _____.

A farmer grew crops and took care of the land.

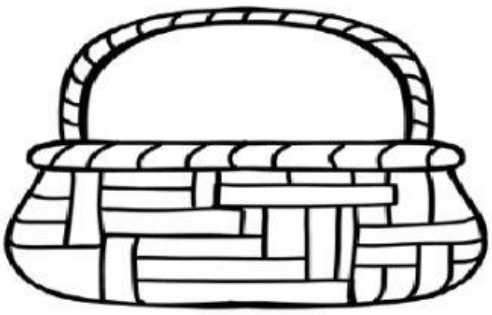

18. Who took care of crops and the land

_____?

A basket maker made baskets.

19. Who made baskets _____?

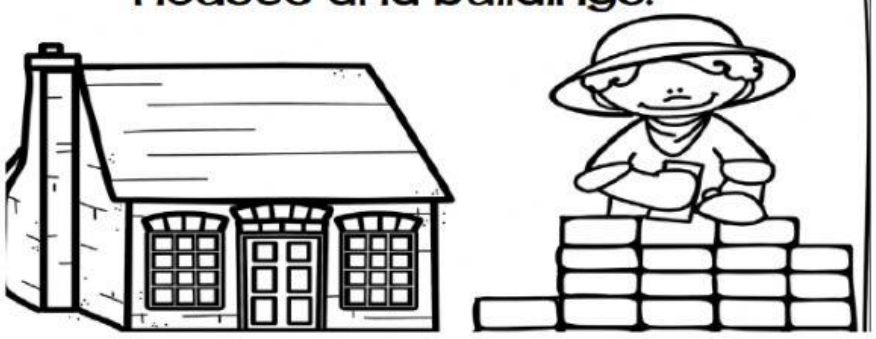

A wood maker made many items from wood.

20. Who made items from wood _____?

A brickmaker made bricks for houses and buildings.

21. What were some of the things a brickmaker would build _____ _____?

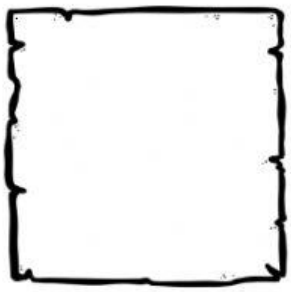

A cooper made barrels for storage.

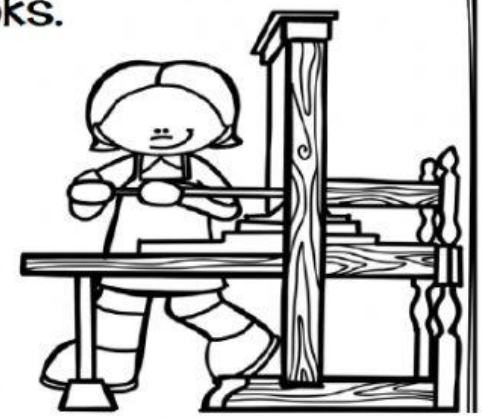

22. What did a cooper make _____ for _____?

A printer printed newspapers and books.

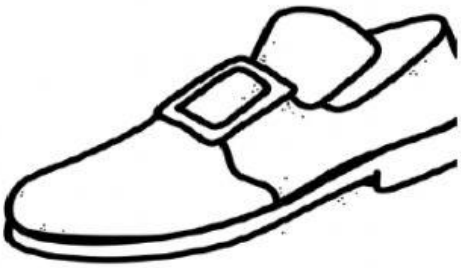

23. What did a printer print _____ and _____?

A shoemaker made shoes for people.

24. Who made shoes for people _____?