

A saltbox house was the name for the houses in New England.

40. What were the names for some of the houses in New England _____?

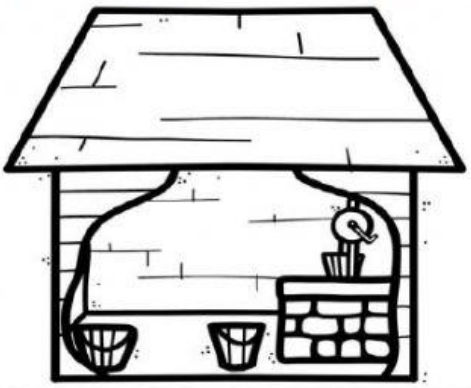

The smokehouse was where meat was smoked.

41 where was the meat smoked, in a _____?

The well house was where the well was that provided water.

42. Where was the water provided for the people in the _____?

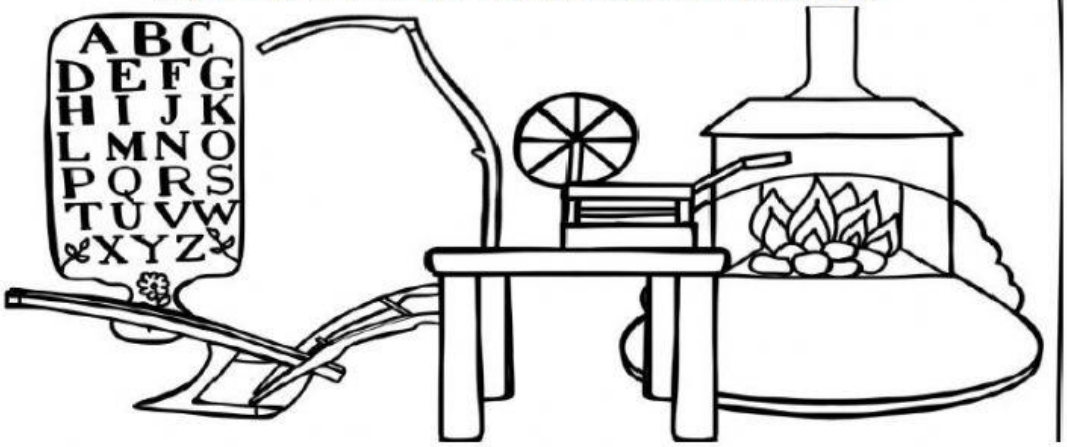

The school was where children were educated.

43. Where was the children educated, in the _____?

There were many technologies used in the colonial times.

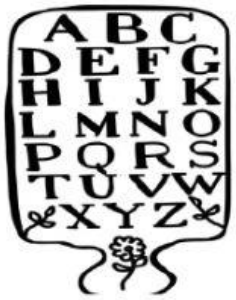

A stay was similar to a corset that most women would wear under their dresses.

44. What was similar to a corset that women would wear under their dresses a _____?

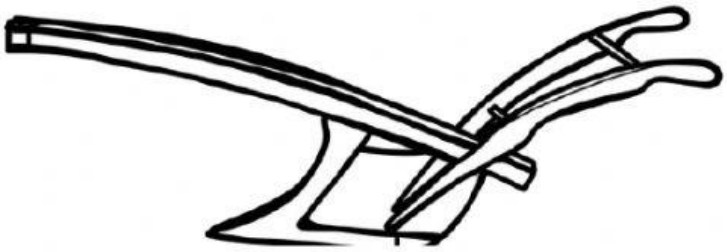

A hornbook was a book that children used to learn from.

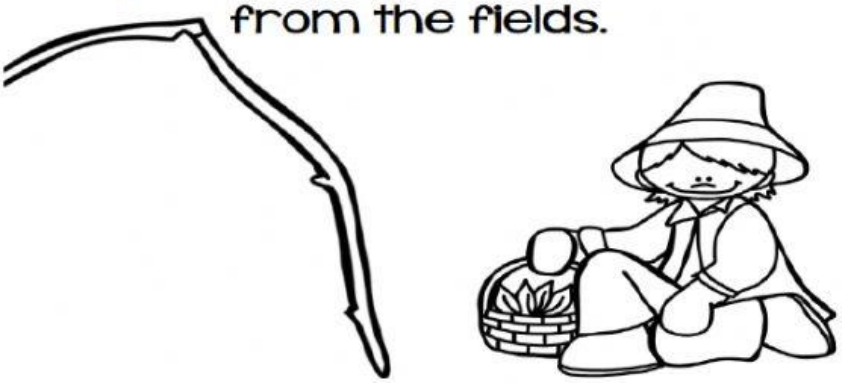

45. What was the name of the book the children learned from_____?

A plow was used to plant the crops in the farm.

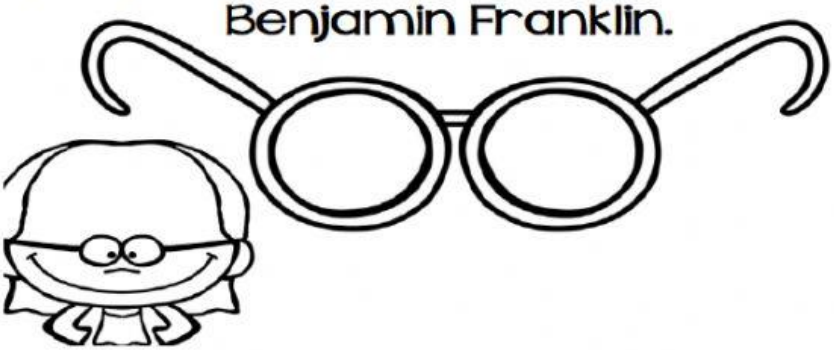

46. What technology was used to plant the crops a _____?

A scythe helped cut down wheat from the fields.

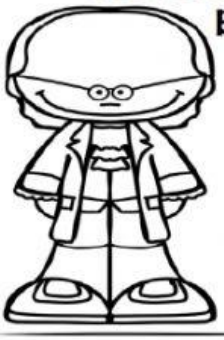

47. What was used to cut down wheat from the fields a _____?

Bifocals were glasses that helped people see. This was invented by Benjamin Franklin.

48. What were the glasses that helped people see _____and who invented them _____?

The Franklin Stove helped heat the home. This was invented by Benjamin Franklin.

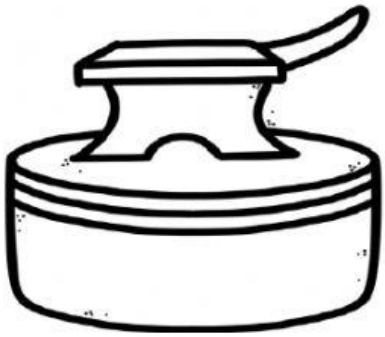

49. What stove helped heat the home _____ _____ and who invented it _____ _____?

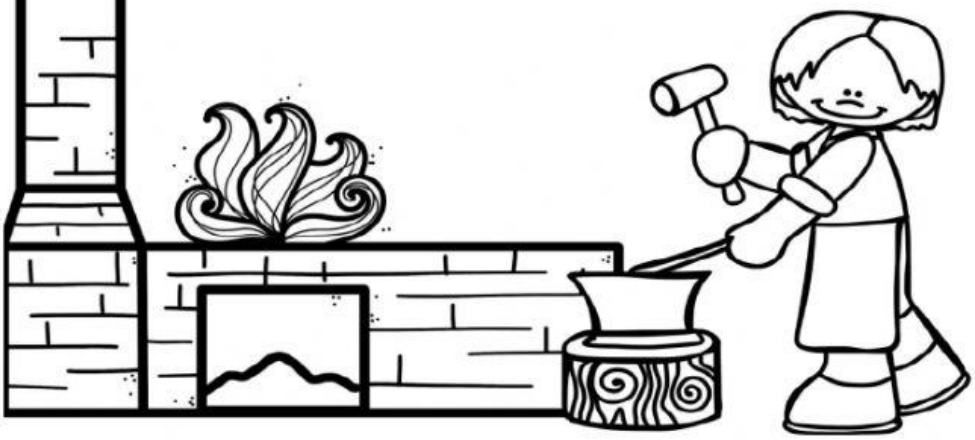

An anvil was a heavy iron block that metal was shaped on top of.

50. What was the name of the iron block that metal was shaped on top of an _____?

A forge was a furnace where metal was heated.

51. Where was metal heated in a _____?

A vice was a tool used to clamp metal while working with it.

52. What was the tool that clamped metal while working on it_____?