

Lesson D Reading

Bob has a new job.

1 Read

Listen and read.

Meet Our New Employee: Bob Green

Please welcome Bob. He is a new security guard. He works the night shift at the East End Factory. Bob starts work at 11:00 at night. He leaves work at 7:00 in the morning.

Bob likes these hours because he can spend time with his family. Bob says, "I eat breakfast with my wife, Arlene, and my son, Brett, at 7:30 every morning. I help Brett with his homework in the afternoon. I eat dinner with my family at 6:30. Then we watch TV. At 10:30, I go to work."

Congratulations to Bob on his new job!

To help you remember, ask questions as you read:
Who is this reading about?
What is this reading about?
When does Bob work?

2 After you read

A Read the sentences. Are they correct? Check [✓] Yes or No.

- | | | |
|--|-----|----|
| 1. This story is about a new boss. | Yes | No |
| 2. He starts work at 7:00 at night. | Yes | No |
| 3. He likes to spend time with his family. | Yes | No |
| 4. Bob helps Brett with his homework. | Yes | No |

Write. Correct the sentences that you answered "No" to.

1. This story is about a new employee.

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

B Write. Answer the questions about Bob's schedule.

1. Where does Bob work? _____

2. Who is Arlene? _____

3. What does Bob do at 7:30 every morning? _____

4. When does the Green family watch TV? _____