

Break the News, by The Who

I will _____ be the one to break the news, if it's alright
I never wanna bring you _____, no
I will always be the one to speak the truth, if it don't hurt
I _____ wanna see you frown, no

We're layin' in
I'm so _____ that it's raining out again
I'm so made up that we're naked in our _____
Like we were 24 back when

Ooh, we'll hammer out
The deeper _____ needing sorting out
If there's an answer, we'll find it without doubt
We're a little more than _____

We fell through time and _____
And chanced upon this _____
And so far we've been safe

I will _____ be the one to break the news, if it's alright
I never wanna bring you _____, no
I will always be the one to speak the truth, if it don't hurt
I _____ wanna see you frown, no
I never wanna _____ you down, no
I never wanna _____ you down

It's raining out
I'm so made up, we've _____ makin' out
Watching _____ in our dressing gowns
Like we were 24 or there about

What matters most?
Life's _____ but it's been a bumpy road
No more than lately, things have been a little wild
Am I an adult or a child?
Don't feel any _____ now

We _____ the world go by
And so far we've been _____

[Chorus]
