

REPRODUCTIVE SYSTEMS

ONE. Write the name of each part of the reproductive systems in the correct box.

TWO. Complete the text with the words in exercise one.

The produce the female cells. The is where the baby grows. The protects the female reproductive organs.

The produce the male cells. The is connected to the testicles by small tubes. The is a tube in the penis.

When a female and male cell join together and make another cell, reproduction takes place.

