LET'S HAVE A PARTY

My daughter, Irma is twelve years old. Next month she is going to be a teenager so I am going to give a big birthday party for her. I would like to invite all her friends to the party but she doesn't know this.

The party is going to be in the Jack's cafe. It is a very nice and popular place. They are going to decorate the cafe with balloons and hang a banner, "HAPPY BIRTHDAY". They are going to make a big birthday cake. The clowns are going to be in the party.

I am going to buy a puppy for my daughter. She always wants a small dog. The present is going to be surprise for her. But the big surprise is Ricky Martin. Her favourite singer, Ricky Martin is going to come to the party and sing his songs for her.

On her thirteenth birthday she is going to be very happy and this party is going to be a big surprise for her. I love my daughter very much.
