

Geography Quiz – COASTLINE

1. A coastline is...

- where there's a high level of contamination
- where people go on holiday
- where the land meets the water
- where the beach is

2. How is sand formed?

- Big boulders that fall and become small
- Machines crash pieces of rock to make it
- Pieces of boulders worn away by the water

3. Do waves have enough strength to break a cliff?

- No
- Yes but only big ones
- Yes, over a long period of time

4. Choose the correct option

- There's one low and one high tide each day.
- There's a high tide one day, and a low tide the next day.
- There are two high tides and two low tides each day.

5. Select all the correct options

- The currents in the middle transfer heat to the poles
- The currents in the poles are colder
- The colder currents are at the top
- The hotter currents are at the bottom

6. What problem did the group talk about?

- Trash in the city
- Trash in the coastline
- Using less plastic

7. What solution did they offer?