

Doctor by day, rapper by night

B RICARDO CABALLERO

Name: _____

Group: _____

Lioness from Namibia is a superstar rapper who's also a doctor.

Watch and find out how she does both jobs!

Tasks Do the preparation task first. Then watch the video and do the exercises.

Preparation task

Match the definitions (a–j) with the vocabulary (1–10). Vocabulary

Definition

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 1. non-essential services | a. A doctor who is still training and who works in a Hospital. |
| 2. an intern | b. when people have to stay where they are and cannot move freely, due to a risk such as Covid-19 |
| 3. a key worker | c. staying far away from other people to stop a disease from spreading. |
| 4. a lockdown | d. services that can be stopped or closed, for example entertainment or tourism |
| 5. social distancing | e. someone who does a job that is essential for society, for example a doctor |
| 6. isolation | f. when the period of time that you work is twice as |

- long as
7. to monetise g. being on your own and separated from other people
8. a double shift h. a person who is receiving medical care
9. a patient i. to relax, for example after work
10. to unwind j. to make money from something

Task 1 Who says it?

Write these sentences in the correct groups.

I know that we're all missing our family, our friends.

Our priority is the patients.
will soon be over.

We've had non-essential services temporarily closed.

I think now we are connected to each other in a more digital way.

We are ensuring that we are practising social distancing.

When I come home, I really unwind.
shifts.

Being a key worker, we are pressured with double shifts.

Dr Mwoombola

Lioness Task

2 Complete the sentences with words from the box.

well with out at as in back than

1. My name is Dr Mwoombola, also known Dr Lioness.

2. I'm a rapper in Namibia as as a medical intern.

3. We are faced the difficulty of a new virus.
4. When other doctors go into isolation, we are more happy to fill in the spots.
5. I'll be on the internet finding ways on how I can monetise my music.
6. I encourage my fans to take part some challenges.
7. Our lives will go to normal. 8. We'll just look the world in a totally different way. Discussion If you could have two different jobs, what would they be?