REVOLUTIONARY WAR

The new government would have a balance of power to make sure each branch wouldn't have too much power.

13. THE NEW GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE A _____ OF _____ TO MAKE SURE EACH BRANCH WOULDN'T HAVE TOO MUCH POWER.

This government would let the citizens vote and elect the officials.

14. THIS GOVERNEMT WOULD LET THE CITIZENS _____ AND _____ THE OFFICIALS.

The Second Continental Congress was when they declared independence or freedom from Great Britain.

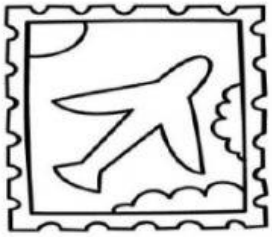

15. WHAT DID THE SECOND CONTINENTAL CONGRESS DO THEY DECLARED _____ OR _____ FROM GREAT BRITAIN.

The Declaration of Independence was a document that said that the colonies wanted freedom from Great Britain.

16. What document said the colonies wanted freedom from Great Britain _____ of _____.

The Stamp Act was when Britain set a tax on stamps that angered the colonists.

.

17. What was it called when Britain set a tax on stamps _____ _____ _____ this angered the colonist.

The Boston Massacre was when a group of British troops opened fire at on a group of colonists.

18. When a group of British Troops opened fire at a group of colonist was called the _____ _____.

The Sons of Liberty included John Adams, John Hancock, Patrick Henry, Samuel Adams, and Paul Revere.

19. Who were the sons of liberty _____, _____, _____, _____, _____?

Colonists called the Sons of Liberty were angry about a high tax on tea.

20. What were the sons of liberty angry about a _____ _____ on tea?

The colonists went aboard ships and dumped crates of tea into the Boston Harbor. This is now called the Boston Tea Party.

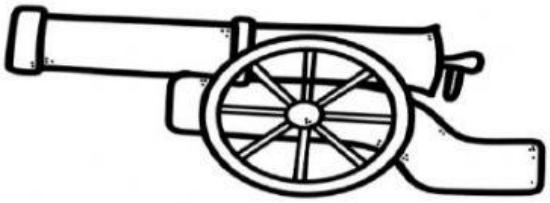

21. What did the colonist do to protest the high taxes on their tea they _____?

After the war started, Paul Revere road his horse to warn the colonists that the British were coming.

22. Who road a horse to warn the colonist that the British were coming _____ _____?

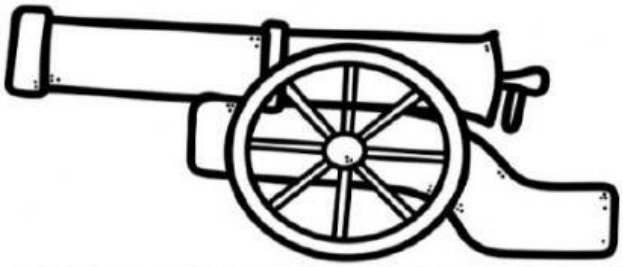

The Battle of Lexington was a small fight, but it was the first battle. The British had a much larger army than the colonist. The British won this battle.

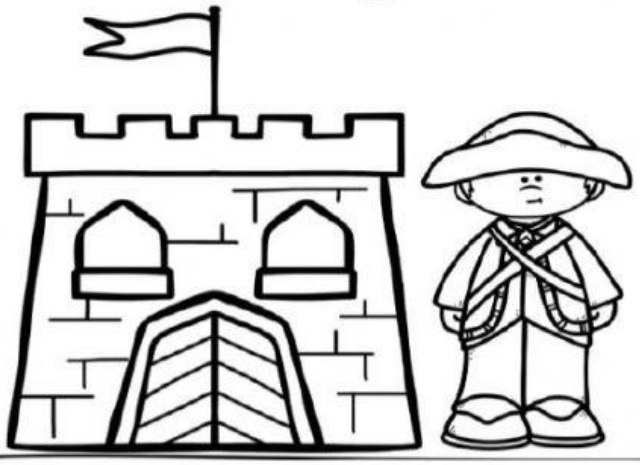

23. Who won the Battle of the Lexington the _____ won the battle?

After the colonists fled from Lexington, they retreated to Concord. They watched as the British came into the town. The Americans gained more forces and defeated the British troops. This fight is called the Battle of Concord.

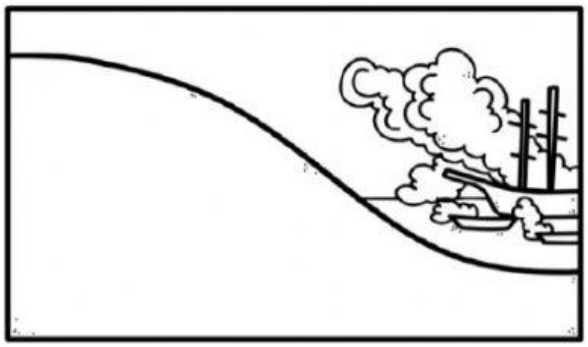

24. After the British won the battle of the Lexington the colonist retreated to Concord. They gained more forces and then defeated the British in the _____ of _____.

The American colonists captured Fort Ticonderoga from the British.

25. What Fort did the colonist capture from the British _____?

The Battle of Bunker Hill was a major battle. The Americans prepared for battle inside the hills. The British attacked and drove the Americans out.

26. The Battle of Bunker Hill was a major battle. Where did the Americans prepare for this battle _____?