

FINAL VOCABULARY EXAM

A1

1. Match the words with the pictures.

40	American	French flag	wallet
family	fashion designer	teacher	jeans
children	100	email	pink purse
Italian	pen	salesperson	lawyer

2. Read the sentences and write the word.

- This is a piece of furniture you can sleep on. _____
- You can keep your food and drinks cool with this. _____
- This is a device with a screen. _____
- You can use it to watch broadcast programs. _____
- This is a set of shelves that you can put your books on. _____
- This is a piece of furniture with a flat top and legs. _____
- You can use this for eating, working, etc. _____

3. Read the sentences about summer vacation plans. Choose the best word for each space. Mark A, B, or C.

- Linda is going to help serve older people meals. She's going to _____ at a nursing home.
A dance B work out C volunteer
- Steve wants to lose weight. He's going to _____ at the gym during the summer.
A work out B study C travel
- Steve misses his family. He is going to _____ his relatives in Chicago this summer.
A take B visit C play
- Steve is going to _____ camping with his relatives in August.
A go B drive C practice

4. Choose the sentences that to complete the conversation.

- Is there a bathtub?
A No, there aren't.
B Yes, there is.
C Yes, there are.

- What are you doing?
 - A I'm cooking dinner.
 - B He's ironing clothes.
 - C I washed the dishes.

- I got a promotion!
 - A That's awesome!
 - B I'm sorry to hear that.
 - C Oh, no! Hang in there.

- What did you do last night?
 - A I'm going to practice the piano.
 - B I swam in the pool.
 - C I am staying in a hotel.

- Can Ted fix computers?
 - A He is going to fix the shower.
 - B Yes, I can. I can fix cars too.
 - C No, but he can draw pictures well.

5. Read the article about a life-changing experience. Are sentences 21-30 "Right" or "Wrong"? If there is not enough information to answer right or wrong, choose "Doesn't say." Mark A, B, or C.

What would you do to save your own life? Aron Ralston had a life-changing experience when he was just 27 years old.

One day in April 2003, Aron went hiking alone in Blue John Canyon in Utah. While he was climbing down the canyon, a huge rock fell on his arm. He could not move the rock or move his body. No one heard his cries for help. He had a video camera but no cell phone. He only had 350 mL of water and a small amount of food. He took videos of himself, and he wrote his name on the rock for others to find. He almost gave up. Suddenly, he had a vision. In the vision, he saw a little boy. He knew that boy was his future son. Finally, he decided to live. He cut off his own arm with only a small pocket knife. He climbed out of the canyon and found help.

*Later, he wrote a book called Between a Rock and a Hard Place. He went on many TV shows and speaking tours. A famous director made a movie about his experience called 127 hours. He even got married and had a baby. Today, he speaks at colleges and* conferences. He tells everyone about the power of getting his life back. What's more, he still loves hiking and climbing. His goal is to climb Mount Everest someday!

	TRUE	FALSE	DOESN'T SAY
Aron went hiking with his friends, but he got lost.
A rock fell on his arm while he was climbing up the canyon.
There were some people outside the canyon, but nobody heard Aron.
His phone was out of battery, so he couldn't call someone.
Aron took a video of himself to leave his will.
Aron had a vision of a boy, and he thought it was his future son.
Aron was able to get out of the canyon because he had a small pocket knife.
Between a Rock and a Hard Place turned Aron into a best-selling author.
Aron made a movie about his own experience.
Aron still goes climbing even after his accident.			