

PRESENT PERFECT (ALREADY & YET)

1. Read and write T (true) or F (false).

|                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| My dreams✓ climb a tall mountain✓ travel in a helicoptergo to the USAwalk on the moon✓ visit the Eiffel Towersee a tiger | 1 She's already been to the USA. F2 She hasn't seen a tiger yet.3 She's already visited the Eiffel Tower.4 She hasn't travelled in a helicopter yet.5 She's already climbed a tall mountain.6 She's already walked on the moon. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

2. Write sentences and questions using yet or already.

1 they / go to the supermarket / ✓ They've already been to the supermarket.

2 she / watch the film / ?

3 he / see my new bike / X

4 you / buy Mum's present / ?

5 I / feed the cat / ✓

6 we / visit the museum / X

3. Look and write sentences using yet or already.

1 they / finish washing the car

They haven't finished washing the car yet.

2 he / go on a bike ride

He's

3 they / water the plants

4 he / finish cutting the grass

5 she / make sandwiches

6 they / eat the sandwiches

