

★ Choose the correct option.

- 1 Are you enough warm / warm enough ?
- 2 There wasn't action enough / enough action .
- 3 Have you got enough money / money enough?
- 4 I didn't take enough T-shirts / T-shirts enough on holiday so I had to buy some more.
- 5 Is your drink cold enough / enough cold?

★★ Complete the sentences with too (much / many) or (not) enough and the words in the box.

cars films money noisy old warm

- 1 I haven't got to buy a sandwich.
- 2 The hotel was at night because there was a disco in the same street.
- 3 You're to watch animated films!
- 4 You aren't wearing a coat. Are you
.....?
- 5 Our local cinemas don't show
from Europe.
- 6 There's a lot of air pollution because there are

.....

★★ Correct the mistakes in bold. One sentence is correct. Use too (much / many) or (not) enough.

- 1 I ate ~~too many~~ food at the weekend.
.....
- 2 Have you got ~~too~~ information to write your article?
- 3 My little brother isn't ~~enough old~~ to see this film.
.....
- 4 Is there ~~enough time~~ to watch a film now?
.....
- 5 The cinema is ~~enough~~ expensive. It costs €8 and I've only got €5.
- 6 That film was ~~too much~~ long. I was really bored.
.....

★★★ Rewrite the sentences with the words in brackets. Use your own ideas where necessary.

The actors weren't young enough. (too)

The actors were ~~too old~~.

My plate is too full. (too much)

There is ~~too much~~ food on my plate.

- 1 I can't see the screen because I'm not tall enough! (too)
I can't see the screen because
- 2 I think the film was too short. (enough)
I don't think the film
- 3 There were a lot of people on the bus, so I couldn't get on. (too many)
I couldn't get on the bus because people.
- 4 This film needs more action. (not enough)
There in this film.