

'TO BE OR NOT TO BE...'

PUT A VERB 'TO BE' IN THE CORRECT FORM

1. If you (to be) _____ to buy a new car, do it now as the prices are going to be higher next month.
2. I am still dirty, (not to be) _____ I?
3. I look forward to (to be) _____ in the same chess club with you.
4. I'd rather you (not to be) _____ so conceited.
5. You'd better (to be) _____ a little bit more careful next time.
6. I wish he (not to be) _____ so reckless last night.
7. I'm sure I saw Sue and Jason in the cinema yesterday. It must (to be) _____ them.
8. But for the lockdown, I (to be) _____ in Paris now.
9. What's wrong? You (to be) _____ so impatient today.
10. It's high time you (to be) _____ more polite to the customers.
11. Can you hear that terrible noise? The painting by Picasso (to be) _____ hung in the living room right now.
12. Do you mind (to be) _____ a little bit more quiet for a change?
13. If I had worked harder, I (to be) _____ promoted last month.
14. I prefer (to be) _____ rich to (to be) _____ beautiful.
15. I (to be) _____ the owner of this lovely house by 2040.

UPDATE YOUR ENGLISH AND MAKE PROGRESS