

Murder in Battersea Park - Vocabulary

1. What's for dinner? I'm s..... I haven't eaten anything since breakfast!
2. Can it wait? – No, the matter is really u..... We have to talk about it now!
3. Why are you crying? – I don't know! Do you have a t..... for me? I really have to blow my nose!
4. My aunt is p..... She is expecting her second child.
5. This is mum's c....., Mrs Smith. They have been working together for the same company for ten years.
6. My neighbour is a doctor. He has his own s..... where he treats all his patients.
7. A tall cupboard in which you hang your clothes: w.....
8. Two metal or plastic rings that are joined by a short chain. The police put them around a prisoner's wrists: h.....
9. Ned Taylor wears a silver s..... in his left ear.
10. A h..... is a person who looks after house. He/she cooks, cleans the rooms and does the laundry among other things.
11. A m..... is a room where a special doctor examines dead bodies to find out why a person died.
12. A large cup used for hot drinks: m.....
13. A loud cry = a s.....
14. I have to a..... that I like the blue pullover better than the green one.
15. Allow me to introduce: this is Mr Miller and this is his w....., Mrs Miller.
16. My mum's sister is my a.....
17. To breathe in a very noisy way while you are sleeping = to s.....
18. I am so p..... of my little brother. His team won the game and he even scored a goal.
19. To press somebody's skin strongly between a finger and a thumb, usually causing pain: to p.....
20. Where you sit in a park: b.....