

PRACTICE 1

Making pizza

Read the dialog. Then circle the correct words to complete the dialog. Follow the example.

Mrs. Kingston: Are you ready to make your own pizza?

Allison: Yes, mom. What do we need?

Mrs. Kingston: Let me check the recipe. We need three cups of flour, a little/a lot of salt, a few/some olive oil, a little/a few hot water, and one pack of leavening. Do we have all the other ingredients?

Allison: I think so. We have a lot of/many flour.

Mrs. Kingston: Good. Now for topping. Do we have any mushrooms?

Bobby: No, we don't have any/ some.

Allison: Yes, we do. We have a lot of mushrooms.

Mrs. Kingston: Good, Do we have any tomato/ tomatoes?

Allison: Yes, here they are.

Mrs. Kingston: What else do you want to put on the pizza?

Bobby: I want to put any/some ham on it.

Mrs. Kingston: Good idea. I bought the mozzarella cheese, and we have many/any herbs and spices here. Let's start!

OPTIONAL PRACTICE 4

Brenda's spaghetti recipe.

Read Brenda's paragraph about a dish she likes to cook. Then write a similar paragraph about a dish you can cook.

Spaghetti with Cream Sauce

Cook spaghetti in a lot of water with a little salt. When it's cooked, throw the water away.

Put the spaghetti in an oven dish with a little butter, some cream, and a lot of cheese. Add a little salt and pepper. Mix the ingredients well. Cook in the oven for twenty minutes.

PRACTICE 6

Mrs. Benson is worried about her son.

Read the dialog. Then circle the correct word or phrase to complete the dialog. Follow the example.

Mrs. Benson: ...One more thing. Doctor. My son Dan. Our nine-year old, eats all the time. I'm worried about him. Do I give him too many/ much food?

Dr. Stiller: Let's see. Does he eat well?

Mrs. Benson: Oh, yes, he's always hungry.

Dr. Stiller: How many/ how much pieces of candy do you give him every day?

Mrs. Benson: Not a lot, about two or three pieces a day.

Dr. Stiller: How many/ how much times a day does he eat a meal or a snack?

Mrs. Benson: He eats breakfast, lunch, and dinner, and a few snacks. That's five or six times.

Dr. Stiller: How many/ how much soda does he drink?

Mrs. Benson: He drinks a can of soda every day with lunch.

Dr. Stiller: Does he play any/ a few sports?

Mrs. Benson: Yes, he plays soccer with his friends in the street most days.

Dr. Stiller: From the sound of it, he's perfectly normal nine-year-old. At his age, boys grow fast and they need a little/ a lot of energy. If you like, you can bring Dan here for a check up.

Mrs. Benson: Thank you, Doctor.

UNIT III. QUANTITY EXPRESSIONS.

GOING SHOPPING.

Tony: I'm going to the store to pick up a few things. Do you need anything?

Dawn: No, thanks.

Tony: Okay, see you in a bit.

Dawn: Wait, let me check something first. Hmm, we don't have much milk. Why don't you pick up a couple of gallons? Oh, and get a dozen eggs and a pound of hamburger meat while you're there too.

Tony: Right. Anything else?

Dawn: How much ice cream do we have?

Tony: I think we're out of ice cream.

Dawn: Okay, get a gallon of ice cream, too. And while you're there, can you get me a little fruit?

Tony: Uh, okay. What do you want?

Dawn: How many apples do we have?

There aren't many, maybe five or six.

Dawn: Get a pound of apples, and a few bananas. Oh, and I think we're going to need some bread, too.

Tony: Okay, how much?

Dawn: Get two loaves: one loaf of wheat bread and one loaf of white.

Tony: This is getting a little complicated, maybe I should make a list..

Dawn: Oh, I almost forgot! Get a jar of baby food, too.

Tony: Baby food? We don't have a baby!

Dawn: I know, but Timmy needs an empty jar for his science project.

Tony: All right. Are you sure you don't need anything else?

Dawn: No, I think that's everything. Bye!
