Hi Sam,
How are you? I hope your exams are going well.
I have finished my exams and I am having a party at my house next Saturday. It's starting at 6 p.m. I'd love to see you there.
Max is going to take care of the food but it would be great if you could bring some drinks. I will also need somebody to help me clean after the party. Could you stay a bit later to help?
I hope you can come!
Sarah

Hi Sarah,
_____ for your email. I'm taking my last exam on Friday so I'll definitely _____ to your party. Unfortunately, I won't be there before 7 p.m. – I promised my sister to watch her school performance. I'll _____ some cola and orange juice, and of course, I will _____ you to _____ after the party.
Would you like me to _____ anything else?
See you there,
Sam

Carrie: OK, Lisa, let's decide what we're going to eat for Sophie's birthday.
Lisa: OK. _____ I know she loves burgers.
Carrie: For a birthday meal? I don't think that's suitable. In my opinion, I think we should have something a bit nicer, as long as it's not too expensive. What about you?
Lisa: Yes, maybe you're right. _____ about going for pizza? Pizza is nicer than burgers and everyone likes pizza.
Carrie: Yes, but pizza is quite boring. We always have it! What about the seafood restaurant on the High Street? I've heard the food's delicious.
Lisa: But it's also very expensive! You said not too expensive, remember? Most of our friends won't be happy with that!
Carrie: OK. The Chinese, then. It's always good food and it's good to share the dishes, especially when you have a lot of people. I really like their noodle dishes.
Lisa: Yeah. _____ . And I think Sofie likes Chinese food too…, but not everyone else does. It's too unusual for some. Why _____ the new gourmet burger place instead? I know Sofie would love that and there are lots of different burgers to choose from, including chicken or vegetarian. The way I see it, that's the most important thing. I think that everyone will find something on the menu that they enjoy eating.
Carrie: Yes, I agree. Personally, I prefer vegetarian burgers, so _____ go there. And the food is good quality, too.
Lisa: OK, great. _____ a table.

A. That's a good idea

B. I'll book

C. Why don't we go to the new fast food place?

D. I think it's a good idea to

E. What do you think

F. don't we try

G. Personally
