

Directions: Write the subordinating conjunction in each sentence. **Remember they tell why, where, when, or how something happens. They are used to combine an independent and a dependent clause.

Ex: I cannot find a good restaurant that I could eat for a good price.

where

1. Sally will be late for the party because she must work until nine.
2. Although it has turned cool, it is still very sunny out.
3. We played tennis until it was too dark to see the ball.
4. Please tell me if you are going to be late for dinner.
5. While the teacher passed out the exam, Martha gazed out the window.
6. Angela will bake us a cake unless her oven is broken.
7. I love to swim whenever we go to my uncle's pool.
8. Even though Mrs. Ritz did not need a new pair of sneakers, she bought them anyway.
9. If you are going to the store, could you please pick me up a jar of pickles?
10. It is crazy that it snowed three feet yesterday.

Directions: Read each sentence. LABEL THE INDEPENDENT CLAUSE: IC AND THE DEPENDENT CLAUSE DC IN EACH SENTENCE. **Remember dependent clauses cannot stand alone. They are not a complete thought. Independent clauses are complete sentences and are the main part of the sentence.

Ex: They will buy a new house if they win the big prize.

IC

DC

11. Unless they put the coat on sale, I cannot afford to buy it.
12. Let us start early in the day before it gets too hot.
13. She can visit her grandmother when her family travels to Florida.
14. Before I leave for vacation, there is a lot I must do.
15. He was carefully painting the room as if he owned the house.