1. Hi mum,

Sorry I haven't 1.1. for so long but there are so many things to see here. I'm staying at Stephen's house. He lives with his parents and his younger brother. His family is great. They like 1.2. other and spend so much time together. The nicest person in this family is Stephen's dad – Shaun. He helps me a lot. He also took me to a volleyball match last week. I think I can rely 1.3. him. You know, mum, I think I feel comfortable here because they are just like us. They are a typical, loving family. Maybe that's 1.4. I don't miss you that much.

Please write to me soon and tell me how you are all doing.

Kisses,

Sue

Yesterday I met my old friend, Debbie, in the supermarket. I haven't seen her 1.1. high school. We were both so surprised and happy to see each other that we couldn't stop talking. Debbie had baby food in her shopping basket so I 1.2. she had had a baby. This turned out to be true. We were talking about our babies and their special diet. The food she had was for allergy sufferers. I asked her 1.3. she was allergic to something but she said no. Her diet is regular but full of vitamins. She tried to be vegetarian but she loves meat.

It was awesome meeting her.

Have you ever been to a big, outdoor concert? I have just come back and I need to tell you about it. It 2.1. 3 days and it was awesome! It was in the city suburbs in the huge meadows. There were dozens of artists 2.2. every kind of music. There was folk, rock, pop and even classical music. I think my favourite performance was the rock one with the symphonic orchestra. The band had invited 50 musicians from the National Philharmonics to perform together. Have you 2.3. been to a concert like this? Did you like it? Please let me know in the comments.
