

The Importance of being Earnest

Give equivalents from the text as a matter of fact to be in the habit of

	to realize, to be conscious of when there are other people present at all events
	to oppose
	charm
	to be long way from + adj; not to be at all surprise
	costing a lot of money someone called to really want, to be serious about to speak quite frankly not to be interested much in neither interesting nor attractive, simple to be short of time to mention
	to make one's mind
	to be not experienced enough to ask sb. to marry him indecent
	to promise to marry, to be betrothed to put many questions to
	to be obliged to be included in a list rich, attractive and not married to write down one's name loving (and caring)
	to agree
	to wish, ho
	to give consent to
	to stop
	to make a point clear
	to live
	to have, to possess
	being warned a month before rather old to assume a wealthy, rich man
	a kind and friendly man irrelevant, not important to feel somewhat puzzled to exhibit
	to consider
	to try hard to succeed in doing smth. difficult horrible