

Read the sentences carefully and fill in the blanks with correct possessive pronoun (my, your, his, her, its, our, your, their).

Example: She has got a teddy bear. Her teddy bear is brown.

1. The dog has got a toy.            toy is yellow and red.
2. Bob has got a chair in            bedroom.
3. Have you got a pencil in            schoolbag?
4. Bill has got a blanket.            blanket is red.
5. We've got a ruler.            ruler is green.
6. I've got a computer.            computer is black.
7. Mary has got a pen.            pen is pink.
8. They've got a table in            kitchen.
9. I've got a cousin.            cousin is short.
10. Have you got a desk in            bedroom?