

THE FUTURE (will – might – going to)

Remember! We use...

WILL	For predictions- instant decisions – offers - promises
GOING TO	For plans and intentions
MIGHT	To express we're not sure about the future.

Activity 1: WILL or GOING TO?

Complete the conversation with the correct form of WILL or GOING TO

A: Have you got any plans for next week?

B: On Tuesday, my dad and I _____ (watch) the football on TV and on Friday, we _____ (probably/go) fishing, but that depends on the weather. What about you?

A: The sales start on Monday, so my mum _____ (buy) me some new clothes. Then on Friday there's a concert.

B: Who _____ (play) at the concert?

A: A local group. One of my friends plays the drums.

B: Wow! What else _____ (you/do)?

A: I'm not sure. There's a circus in town this week so maybe I _____ (go) there.

B: That's good. I can't go out much. I've got an exam on Thursday, so I _____ (not hang out) with friends as I _____ (study) for that.

Activity 2: WILL or MIGHT?

Choose the correct option

- 1- Look at those black clouds, it WILL / WON'T rain later.
- 2- I'm not sure if I'm going to Mark's party. I WILL / MIGHT go.
- 3- They've been together for ages. I'm sure they MIGHT / WILL get married.
- 4- This answer WILL / MIGHT be right. I don't know.
- 5- I promise I WON'T /MIGHT NOT tell anyone your secret.

Activity 3: Write

1 plan for the summer holidays

1 prediction for 2021

1 promise

1 plan you're not sure about