

True or False?

1. A newsroom is where journalists work.
2. Journalists are not very busy during the day; they are relaxed.
3. The stories they prepare must be finished after 10pm.
4. The most popular newspaper in the UK is called "The Independent".
5. People who work in charity shops start their job at nine in the morning.
6. These people never work on Saturdays.
7. If you want to become a shop assistant, you must study at university.
8. A builder can fix the roof of a house.
9. A builder's job is not easy; it's rather difficult and dangerous.
10. Builders usually work more during the winter.