

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Sound of ch and kn

Read the following sentences. Then write each word containing ch in the correct column.

The letters ch usually stand for the sound at the beginning and end of church. Sometimes the letters ch can stand for the sound of k or the sound of sh.

1. Charlotte's party began right on schedule.
2. Charles led a small orchestra in playing "Happy Birthday."
3. Charlotte's favorite present was a chemistry set.
4. She also liked the silver chain and silver charm bracelet.
5. The new student came in a chauffeur-driven car.
6. Carrie brought some chopped chives and bean dip.
7. A special chef made chocolate cake.
8. Our stomachs ached, but we played charades anyway.

k	ch	sh

The letters kn usually stand for the n sound in knee. The letter k is silent.

Write each word in which the letters kn stand for the n sound on the line.

9. Sandy has always had a knack for camping. _____
10. He packs his knapsack carefully. _____
11. First he puts his scout knife into the flap. _____
12. Next he folds his knitted cap and gloves. _____
13. When everything is packed, he ties a secure knot. _____