GIST: Your friends are a bit distracted, today, so help them understand the gist of the video. WRITE these terms on a separate piece of paper. LISTEN to the video ONCE. While you are listening to the video, make a MARK each time you hear them. When the video is finished, COUNT how many times you have heard each term, then use the PULLDOWN menus to CHOOSE the correct answers. WATCH OUT! One of the people in the video didn't get mentioned in the credits, and so is mad. To try to spoil the video's effect, this meanie has put in at least one word not in the video.

_____ 600

_____ Indiana

_____ 2050

_____ Brighton

DETAILED: Thanks! You helped your friends get the gist of the video, and they've decided to listen, again, for details because it's interesting. You listen, again, too, then answer the questions in the following way: (1) READ the questions TWICE, then (2) LISTEN to the video TWICE WITHOUT looking at the questions, (3) when the video is over, CLICK on the CORRECT answer WITHOUT listening, again. If you do need to listen again, it's OK; just remember for which ones you had to do it, so you can talk about it with your teacher. BE CAREFUL! The wording of the questions may not be exactly the same wording as it is in the video! MAXIMUM: 25 minutes
