The Sound

David was sitting on the couch. He was reading a book. It was quiet. Suddenly, David heard a sound. Where was the sound coming from? He looked under the couch. He looked in the trash can. He looked behind the refrigerator. David was feeling confused. David sat on the couch again. He listened very carefully. "Ah ha!" shouted David. He lifted the pillow next to him. There was Pepper the cat. She was asleep. She was making a very loud purring sound. Good night, Pepper!
