Adjectives vs. Adverbs

Reminders:

An adjective modifies a noun.

Ex: a tall building, a magnificent sunset, a frozen lake

An adverb modifies a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

Ex: running slowly, a partially frozen lake, rather forcefully spoken

While they have a similar function in the sentence (adding detail), it is important to be able to tell them apart.

A. Tell me if the word in bold in the sentence is an adverb or an adjective or an adverb. Write the word adjective or adverb on the line.

1. The sword was completely broken after the fight. _____
2. The giant monster threatened my family. _____
3. At my school, hall passes are pink. _____
4. I enjoy very romantic stories. _____
5. Miss Rich's students noisily sharpen their pencils. _____
6. The electric pencil sharpener is loud. _____
7. Be careful with the glasses, they are fragile. _____
8. He was breathing heavily after his run. _____
9. Arthur finally finished his novel. _____
10. Do you know the song "Golden Slumbers" by The Beatles?

    _____

B. Choose the correct form of the word. Should it be an adjective or an adverb?

Type the correct word on the line.

1. My father never drives very (careful or carefully) _____.
2. Miss Rich seems (calm or calmly) _____ today.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Keith's shoes are (new or newly) _____.
4. In class, Irene always reads (good or well) _____.
5. Mom waited (patient or patiently) _____ for her kids to be ready.
6. Yesterday the (bright or brightly) _____ sun was shining.
7. It stopped raining very (sudden or suddenly) _____.
8. Gurthie walked (quick or quickly) _____ to get home on time.
9. The distant mountains look (beautiful or beautifully) _____.
10. The school bell rings too (loud or loudly) _____ every day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS