

LISTEN AND COMPLETE THE MISSING WORD YOU HEAR.

Ben: Hello.

Lily: Hi Ben, it's me.

Ben: Lily! How are you? How was your (1) _____?

Lily: Oh, fine. No problems at all.

Ben: Are you at the hotel?

Lily: Yes, and it's (2) _____. It's got these amazing baths.

Ben: Yes, I know, I've been there.

Lily: So, when can we meet?

Ben: Let's see — well, tonight's (3) _____, I'm seeing Paul, a Hungarian friend. He invited me to dinner ages ago.

Lily: That's fine — I'm a bit tired anyway.

Ben: How about tomorrow? I'm (4) _____ students during the day, but I'm free in the evening.

Lily: I've got a (5) _____ dinner tomorrow night. Are you doing anything on Tuesday night?

Ben: Sorry, but I'm playing (6) _____ with three of my friends. We always play on Tuesday nights so I can't cancel it. And I'm going to Vienna on Wednesday, like I told you, and I don't get back till very late, so Wednesday's out. What about Thursday night?

Lily: Thursday's fine. Are you going to take me to that restaurant you (7) _____?

Ben: Restaurant — yes, yes of course.

Lily: And then (8) _____ you can show me round a bit on Friday? I'm free in the afternoon — the conference finishes at lunchtime.

Ben: Sorry, Friday afternoon's no good. I'm going to the (9) _____ at four.

Lily: Oh, poor you!

Ben: But maybe after dinner on Thursday we can go for a walk and you can see Budapest at night.

Lily: (10) _____!

Ben: I can (11) _____ you up at the hotel at about 7.30. Is that OK?

Lily: Perfect, see you there. (12) _____ to it. It's ages since I last saw you. Bye.
