RELATIVE PRONOUNS/ADVERBS IN DEFINING RELATIVE CLAUSES

Choose the correct relative pronoun or adverb in each sentence:

1. The books _____ my father brought aren't interesting.
2. I met the woman _____ son got married last Sunday.
3. They'll never forget the day _____ their village caught fire.
4. I want you to meet the police officer _____ courage shocked everybody.
5. This is the dog _____ bit my hand.
6. You can see the child _____ won two tournaments in a row.
7. Why don't you see the office _____ we'll be holding our meetings?
8. The salad _____ she bought at the market was really fresh.
9. That is the car _____ owner got arrested for speeding last month.
10. The sandwiches _____ my auntie makes are delicious.
11. She doesn't like the food _____ I prepare for lunch.
12. She was born at a time _____ life was really difficult for girls in her village.
13. Don't touch the mobile phone _____ screen is scratched.
14. The football pitches _____ the children are playing now are very dry.
14. I prefer the football pitches _____ we see on television.
15. The classroom _____ they do homework is still closed.
16. The players _____ got ill last week won't play the next match.
17. The sentences _____ our teacher wrote on the board aren't difficult.
18. The boy forgot to bring the pictures _____ he had taken on holidays.
19. The magazines _____ covers were red are in the cupboard.
20. That month _____ there were so many storms was unforgettable.

LIVEWORKSHEETS