

Christmas

Fill in the blanks appropriately. The first letter of the missing word is given.

Christmas is a religious h_____ celebrated on 25 D_____. It is the time when people usually get together with f_____ and friends on Christmas Eve – the day before Christmas day. Many people go to c_____ on Christmas day. People give each other p_____ or text each other wishing a M_____ Christmas. At Christmas, people s_____ carols and other Christmassy songs to get into the Christmas spirit. People put up and d_____ Christmas trees and put up l_____ and garlands around the house. Many people also light c_____ at Christmas. Everything is christmassed up. People enjoy eating sweet Christmas t_____. Baking cookies is a way to bring Christmas atmosphere into your h_____. Or, you can also visit the annual Christmas m_____ in cities across Europe.

Children are excited about Santa Claus, an old man with a white b_____ that lives in the N_____. Santa brings presents to all the children, not just those who have been n_____.

Santa travels around the world in his s_____, which is pulled by flying r_____. The red-nose reindeer is called R_____. When he stops at a house, he goes down the c_____ and leaves the presents u_____ the Christmas tree and he also fills the stockings.

Sometimes there is a white blanket of s_____ at Christmas, so people go skiing and children can make a s_____.

Christmas is also a time for h_____ other people and giving money to charities.

